

Please keep the Do Not Call line and not change it. It has dramatically changed the amount of calls and my family can actually get thru dinner without being bothered with annoying telemarketing calls. You should not allow changes and let the telemarketers to have their way.